I'm staying at the Baymont also. I'm pretty sure Greg will be staying at the track.

I'm staying at the track again. Maybe we can roast marshmallows by the campfire and tell scary stories, or maybe we can paint each others toenails like my wife and I like to do!(maybe I shouldn't talk about that in public!).

Thanks Rick for the heads up on the cookie cutters. I've been too busy this week to check them out and my wife couldn't find them this afternoon.
