

Peachstate 225 Enduro and Sprint Races 2016

Posted by AgRacer - 07 Mar 2016 10:27

Who's interested in doing the PCA event the first week end of April at Road Atlanta? I would like to but might wait just a little bit to see what the entry list is going to be. Would be nice to change it up a little bit and run with a different crowd.

I am planning on it, I think John is too.

I think there are 4-5 SP1 cars already registered so it should be a good group again after this week end.

I'd like to do a PCA race, depending on how this weekend goes. But I don't want to do Rd Atl - we do that so often already. I'm an Ohio boy, so Mid-Ohio May 13-15 looks interesting. Or possibly VIR Jun 24-26.
