

Winter Meltdown 2017 - CMP - February 11-12

What is now round 3 is up next with a visit to CMP. With the double points scoring event at Sebring, Perkins is already out to a big lead over Keller and Stanley in season points.

Roebeling Road was a wet rainy mess on Sunday, but Saturday was tons of fun with the combined race groups and double race format. This CMP event will also likely be a combined racer run group with double races with the second race each day counting for season points.
