

Dallas/Ft. Worth Area...looking to go racing again

Posted by Roberto - 18 Jan 2015 18:31

I live in Arlington and I am looking to go back to racing, interested in racing road courses so the 944 Spec class is of interest to me. I have raced for many years in a number of different venues and classes. I took a break from racing because my eight year-old son had shown interest and I was dedicating my track time to him...now he wants to play soccer instead!...I guess good for me.

Same as other folks, I am looking for something that is affordable, fun, fair, and friendly.

Any cars for sale in the area?

Roberto-

There are a couple of cars from Local guys. Mark Steele has a 924S listed in the for sale section and Chris Blazer and Steve Coomes build cars to rent and sell. They have several cars which can be purchased. If you contact me I can provide their contact information. My number is 214-two hundred and fifty-1750.

Roberto- Steve responded in the thread. As he stated both he and Chris have cars available and they are great resources. There is also Mark Steele's 924S.
